V. New Business

A. National Program

Garland Kent

1. NLS/DYLC 2019

Brandon Stahl

a) CR Chief Brandon shared that the next NLS will be in St. Louis teaching new skills that will be available today. It will help you take an active role in leadership in scouting and outside of scouting. Brandon also shared that if you want to grow your leadership, NLS is the place to do it.

2. OA Webinar 2019

a) National OA is trying to direct the OA onto a new path that will allow us to not die as an organization. Every lodge should be on it. What we need from you is the meeting locations. If you have any questions during the webinar, please email or slack the Section Officers.

CENTRAL REGION SECTION 6A

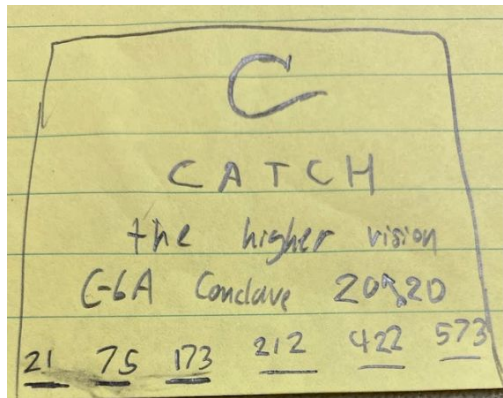

ORDER OF THE ARROW

- (1) We are the welcoming to the conclave. The ones who lay down the vision. When you arrive to Conclave Friday, be prepared to laugh, cry, and learn. Sit together with your Lodge, as we present a story of Brotherhood, Cheerfulness, and Service. On Saturday, our story concludes in the council fire, and each Lodge will be presented their awards from the weekend. Join us for opening and closing shows and meet a fellow arrowman, Jimmy, who has lost his vision.
 - b) Sakima: Host Lodge-
 - (1) 2020 conclave is going to be hosted at the wonderful facility of Culver Academy's Woodcraft Camp, a site full of fantastic locations to host all of our many activities. An amazing menu is planned to sustain you during your weekend of fun.
 - c) Kiondaga: Special Events-
 - (1) Special Events will once again host a VIA luncheon! The VIA luncheon is for the Chiefs and Bear Scholars for each lodge, where we celebrate some of the very important Arrowmen in our section. Other special events include a Euchre tournament following the Saturday night show and an Ice cream social with all of your favorite toppings. You will also receive a cool OA Section C-6A <swag>. We can't wait to SEE you at conclave.
 - d) Takachsin: AIA-
 - e) Kiskakon: Trainings-
 - (1) 2020's Conclave will offer various exciting training opportunities for everyone in attendance. A hindsight look to the past and a vision to the future for Ordeal members along with an opportunity to enhance your lodge's HPL metrics & SMART goals. Finally, your lodge will have the chance to THRIVE by improving unit perceptions of the Order of the Arrow.
 - (2) Two trainings left to figure out
 - f) Nischa Chuppecat: Activities-
 - (1) Come join us at Activities - where the fun is at! Participate in our obstacle course with a new vision of your path. Test your eagle eye on our putting green. Create a better vision to scope in your target at our range. Trust your fellow Arrowmen's vision to put you on target. This Section Conclave will give you a chance to leave your mark on items that can feel the burn!
3. Conclave Schedule
 - a) Approved by the COC
 4. Conclave Patch Design
 - a) Official Design needs to be approved by Culver
 - b) Different designs from Nicha, Jaccos, and Kiskakon

- c) Motion to decide on the Conclave patch put forth by Jonathon Kipper and Seconded by David Meuter. Patch designs include 2020 glasses, 2020 vision chart, and a laser cut pentagon with glasses outreaching the border.
 - (1) 2020 glasses- 1
 - (2) 2020 vision chart-4
 - (3) Outreaching glasses-3

VI. Questions/Concerns

A. SOP

- 1. Please get in your comments in the next two weeks to the section officers or by using the link

B.

VII. Closing

A. Section Adviser's / Chief's Minute

- 1. Bryan thanks us for making our way out and he is thinking it may be the largest conclave in recent history. He also thanked Chuck Dilts for his contributions to this Conclave. Nomination forms on the Section Website for Section Officers.
- 2. Garland thanks the COC for their productivity and the status of Conclave is very far ahead then we have been in the past. Thanks for coming out. Conclave 2016 was his first Conclave. We have the opportunity to change the lives of Arrowmen with this event so it is a very big deal for all of us to make it the best it can be.

B. Song

- 1. Was sung at 10:50 am EST
